Event Name: Murder Mystery

Tagline: One Crime. A Hundred Suspects. One Winner.

Rules and regulations:

1. Team Composition

- Maximum 3 members per team.
- All members must be enrolled students of the participating college.
- Teams must designate a Team Leader responsible for communication with organizers.
- Registration fee: ₹ 200 / Team

2. Game Guidelines

- Attention to clues, evidence collection, and logical reasoning will be part of the evaluation criteria.
- Logical justification of every conclusion drawn will be essential; baseless guesses or random assumptions will not be considered valid.
- Attention to minor details and careful sequencing of events will be advantageous in uncovering the true culprit.
- Integrity and fair play are expected from all participants; any form of external assistance or disruption to other teams will lead to disqualification.
- Clues may be presented in various forms such as written evidence, visual hints, or character interactions; participants must remain alert and adaptive to all formats.

- Each team must interpret the evidence in a systematic manner to reconstruct the chain of events leading to the crime.
- The ultimate objective is to accurately identify the murderer and provide a logical explanation supporting the deduction.

3. Description

“Murder Mystery — One Crime. A Hundred Suspects. One Winner” is an immersive investigative challenge that puts participants’ logic, intuition, and teamwork to the ultimate test. Stepping into the role of detectives, participants must decode clues, analyze evidence, and unravel a tangled web of lies to uncover the truth behind a mysterious crime.

The event demands sharp observation, critical thinking, and the ability to separate fact from deception. Every clue, statement, and twist will push participants to think deeper and connect the dots with precision and reasoning.

Beyond the thrill of solving the mystery, Murder Mystery emphasizes teamwork, communication, and strategic problem-solving. Accuracy, clarity of logic, and the method used to reach the final verdict will define the best detectives of the game.

As time runs out and suspicion grows, only the most perceptive minds will see through the chaos. In this battle of wit and instinct, one team will stand above all — uncovering the truth behind the crime.
